

INSURANCE BROKERAGE FIRMS PROVIDING SERVICES IN CONNECTICUT

(last reviewed as of October 2023)

Pro Bono Partnership is providing this non-exhaustive list of insurance brokerage firms as a resource to Connecticut nonprofits. Some of these firms may also provide additional services. By providing this list, the Partnership is neither endorsing any of the listed firms, nor warranting the quality of the listed firms. Each nonprofit should perform its own due diligence before retaining any firm.

Our criteria for inclusion on this list is simply that these firms hold themselves out as having expertise in providing insurance brokerage services to nonprofits. We do not know about their fee structures, but you should expect to pay fees.
